

GLIMPSES OF GRACE: WHERE, WHY, WHO, WHAT, HOW ?????

Glimpses of Grace – a brand new ministry of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Enid, Oklahoma, airs Saturday mornings at 7:30 right after the Friends of Israel weekly program and just before Focus on the Family Weekend as well as on Sunday mornings at 7:30 following Let My People Think and preceding Psalm 95.

Where in the world is Enid, Oklahoma ?? 95 miles north of Oklahoma City and 115 miles west of Tulsa.

Why in the world is Emmanuel Baptist Church airing Glimpses of Grace in New England? Mutual friends, David and Elizabeth Stone, of WSEW and WWPC station managers, Ron and Sharon Malone, connected the ministry of their pastor, Wade Burleson, to the outreach of Christian radio in Maine and New Hampshire. They felt their pastor's sermons were worth hearing by more folks and God opened the door to bring Glimpses of Grace to the listeners of WSEW and WWPC.

Who is Pastor Wade Burleson? Wade has been the senior pastor at Emmanuel Baptist in Enid, OK since 1992. Wade and his wife, Rachelle, have four children.

What in the world will Glimpses of Grace mean to the listeners of Radio to Live With ?? Pastor Wade's first sermon series focuses on the "I Wills" of Christ. Listeners will be encouraged by the Savior's words and be challenged to trust in His promises for daily living in the world but not of the world.

How in the world can you learn more about Glimpses of Grace and Pastor Wade Burleson? On the world wide web of course !! www.glimpsesofgrace.net You can also write to Wade at Emmanuel Baptist Church, 2505 W. Garriott Rd., Enid, OK 73703-5224 or phone the church for more information at 580-237-0602